

The Revolver in question named in the lawsuit American Royal Arts has pending against Frank Caiazzo was recently sent to the top forensic laboratory specializing in ink dating and analysis. A complete chemical analysis has been conducted. The results are in and American Royal Arts is pleased and satisfied with the conclusion as the findings confirmed the age of the ink used to sign the album cover. The complete report and details will be made public during the upcoming court hearing.